

Prophetic Word given to Tree of Life Church on 11th March 2012

By Will Graham

If you're the church, this is for you. You know the Lord's been giving me a picture this morning of buildings before pastor came to speak. And the picture the Lord has been sharing in my heart was – and I'll describe it in Lancashire up in the north – an old cotton mill. Big steel, iron gates opening into it. Car parking for hundreds of cars. And you the church were in the ground floor of this amazing mill. And you were not a few hundred strong my brother. God has destined you to be a man who will lead a church of thousands.

You see you can give a man a church of thousands and his gifting is only for 50 and he will grow it to 50. But you can give a man a church of 50 who's destined for a church of thousands and he will grow it to thousands with God's help over a period of time.

This is what God has destined for your pastors that they will establish a church that the nations will come to. The nations are going to come to your door. They are going to knock on your door. This next move will only be temporary because that which is going to come is so big it will seat thousands my brother, and the nations will come to you.

One of the significant things about your church as I was talking with Barb, God's laid in my heart. You remember the conferences we did called Grace and Faith, and those conferences we brought in the pastor, the teacher, the evangelist, the prophet and the apostle. We believe powerfully in the five-fold ministry. And I believe that in the work that God is going to enable you to establish here in this part of His kingdom, you are going to bring in men and women of five-fold ministry stature who will breathe a foundation into the lives of people from miles and miles around, and your church is going to be known as a place where major international speakers come, they will come my brother, they are on their way right now in Jesus' name. They are coming and the thousands are coming, and the police are going to be patrolling outside your church to control the traffic, in the name of Jesus. Hallelujah!

Now you gotta see it by faith. And I have seen it this morning. Church you better get ready, you have a lot of cleaning to do. Hallelujah! There's a lot of windows to be cleaned, there's a lot of floor to be brushed, there's a lot of work to do. But you're doing it for Him, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, Hallelujah! And their coming, they're on their way in the name of Jesus. And then they are going to go out to the nations, hallelujah, as men and women equipped with the Word of God in their hearts. This London's got thousands of churches, but God wants to do something unique, a place where people are genuinely loved. And it doesn't matter what the mistakes you have made in your life are, Jesus loves you. And if you know Jesus as your Saviour this morning then your past is forgiven, your present looks forgiven and your future is forgiven. It's all been dealt with at the cross.
